INTERNAL

A covered porch to the front of this attractive period home provides a convenient sheltered space before passing through to the large entrance hallway. Immediately apparent, is the wealth of period features that adorn this home including original skirting boards, cornicing, corbels and the characteristic tall ceilings. Positioned to the front of the property with a large bay window, is the well proportioned lounge. A central feature fireplace with marble surround along with large decorative ceiling moldings help to create a grand, yet cosy room. A second reception room offers versatility and is currently being used as a fifth bedroom by the current owners. Overlooking the rear garden with large double doors is the dual aspect kitchen. This very light and airy room has been fitted with an array of floor and wall mounted 'shaker' style units finished in sympathetic cream topped with laminate worksurfaces, with a central breakfast bar island. Accessed directly from the kitchen is the third reception room and perfectly placed as a dining room with ample space for a large family sized dining table. In addition, there is a ground floor w/c fitted with a toilet and hand wash basin. To the first floor are four generously sized bedroom with the principle bedroom spanning the full width of the property and positioned to the front. It has a southerly aspect with a large bay window along with a balcony that provides views through the trees to Homefield Park. The family bathroom has been fitted with a full white suite including a freestanding roll top bath, toilet, hand wash basin and a walk-in shower cubicle.

EXTERNAL

The front garden is paved allowing off road parking for several vehicles and has two original flint boundary walls with a number of mature planted trees and shrubs. A side gate provides access to the rear garden. Recently landscaped by the current owners, this lovely rear garden has been cleverly designed to require minimal upkeep. A large paved patio immediately accessibly from the kitchen leads to a shingled area flanked by deep mature planted borders. To the back of the garden is a newly installed, timber built outbuilding that benefits from double glazing, power and lighting creating the perfect office or hobby room.
