Morning walks along the shoreline, swimming or paddleboarding in calm waters, and evening sunsets viewed from your own garden or lounge become part of everyday life. The ever-changing seascape provides a sense of calm and connection to nature that is rare to find, while the beach itself offers a private, peaceful retreat just steps from your door.

For those who love the outdoors, the South Downs National Park is just a short drive inland, offering miles of unspoilt countryside, rich wildlife, and opportunities for walking, cycling, and other pursuits.
