INTERNAL

The front door opens into a warm and welcoming entrance hall, where high ceilings and period detailing immediately set an elegant tone for the home. Solid oak parquet flooring runs seamlessly throughout the entire ground floor, adding a sense of continuity, craftsmanship, and timeless appeal. This spacious hallway provides access to all principal ground floor rooms and features a useful understairs storage cupboard—ideal for coats, shoes, or general household items. A gracefully rising staircase leads to the first floor, further enhancing the home's traditional charm and generous proportions. At the front of the property, a beautifully bright and expansive dual-aspect living and dining room enjoys windows to both the east and west, allowing natural light to flood the space throughout the day. This wonderfully airy and inviting room is centred around a striking feature fireplace with a marble surround, adding warmth and character to the setting. To the rear of the home lies the well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room—an ideal hub for daily family life and entertaining alike. Fitted with an excellent range of wall and base units and complemented by solid beech worktops, the kitchen offers ample storage and preparation space. There is also a dedicated utility cupboard housing laundry appliances and providing additional functionality without compromising on style. With plenty of room for a large dining table, the kitchen easily accommodates casual meals, homework sessions, or relaxed gatherings with guests. Upstairs, the first floor comprises three well-proportioned bedrooms, each thoughtfully arranged to maximise comfort and space. The principal bedroom, positioned at the front of the house, is a truly impressive space that spans the entire width of the property and measures a generous 14'11" x 12'11". The room's scale allows for a full suite of bedroom furniture with ease—including a king-size bed, freestanding wardrobes, and additional storage—while still maintaining an open and uncluttered feel. A charming west-facing bay window fills the space with warm afternoon sunlight, and a beautiful period fireplace serves as a striking focal point, reinforcing the room's elegant character. Completing the first floor is the family bathroom, fitted with a tasteful and functional three-piece suite including a panelled bath with shower over, WC, and hand wash basin. Finished in a clean, neutral style, it offers both comfort and practicality for everyday use.

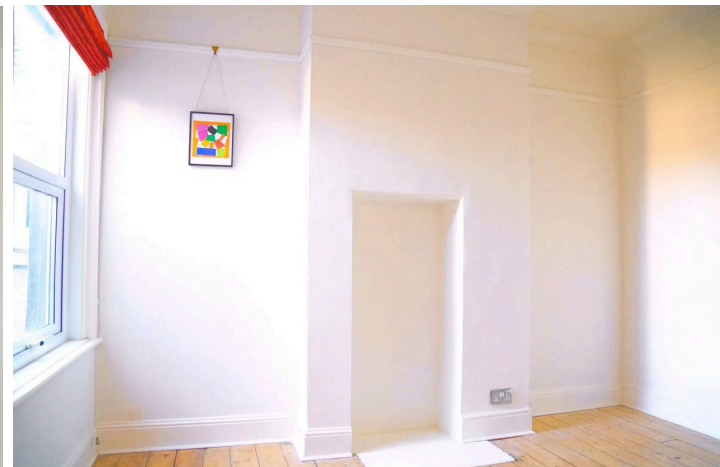

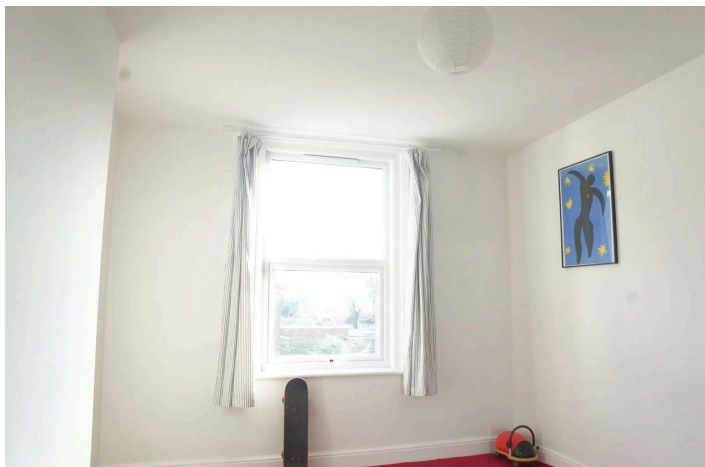

EXTERNAL

An original flint wall borders the front garden of this striking period home, adding character and charm while enhancing its kerb appeal. The garden has been thoughtfully landscaped with paved pathways and mature planted borders, creating an inviting first impression that complements the property's historic aesthetic. To the rear, the east-facing garden has been cleverly designed for low-maintenance living without sacrificing beauty or function. A generous decked area offers an ideal spot for al fresco dining, morning coffee, or evening relaxation. Beyond this, a neat central lawn is framed by well-established planting, adding a splash of colour and a sense of softness to the space. Surrounded by attractive, painted brick walls, the garden is wonderfully private and tranquil—providing a peaceful retreat for quiet moments or a charming backdrop for entertaining friends and family.
